

TIMP HIGHEST POINT

Highest point in Utah county is Mt. Timpanogos, 12,008 feet above sea level. The point of lowest altitude in the county where the Jordan river flows north to empty into Great Salt Lake is only 20 miles south-west of Timpanogos, but at 4,495 feet it lies some 8000 feet below the summit of that peak. Elevation of Provo is 4,517 feet.

Timpanogos 1st

named by

Italian Aztec

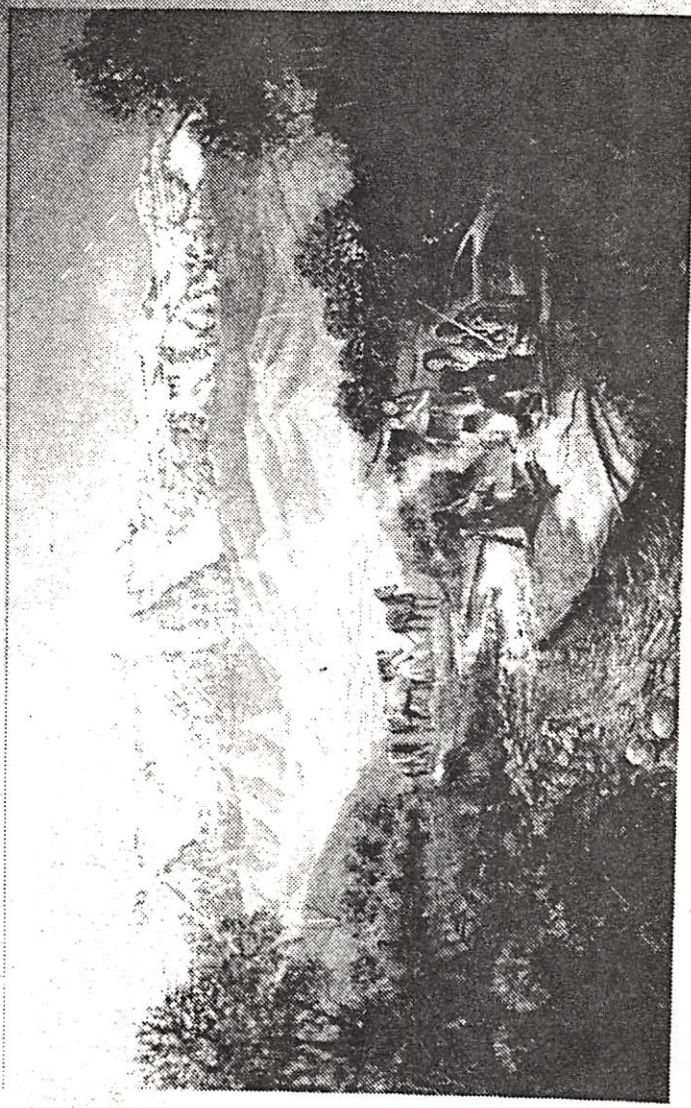

Map Indians ??

Dan Ker

See "It happened in Orem"

Find pict. of old man & 2 boys

"The Mt."

Indians telling the legend of Timpanogos.

Vernon Mordock painted one like this

Get Vernon
Mordock
picture